

■ Cricket Q&A;

Q: Who is known as the 'God of Cricket'?

A: Sachin Tendulkar, the Indian batting legend, is often called the 'God of Cricket'. He scored 100 international centuries, a record unmatched in cricket history.

Q: What is a hat-trick in cricket?

A: A hat-trick is when a bowler takes 3 wickets in 3 consecutive deliveries. It's a rare and celebrated achievement in cricket.

Q: Which country won the first Cricket World Cup in 1975?

A: West Indies won the first-ever World Cup in 1975. They defeated Australia in the final at Lord's.

Q: Who holds the record for the fastest century in ODIs?

A: AB de Villiers holds it with a 31-ball hundred against West Indies. It came in Johannesburg in 2015.

Q: What is the role of a wicketkeeper?

A: The wicketkeeper stands behind the stumps to catch the ball. He also stumps batsmen and takes catches off edges.

Q: Which Indian captain led the team to the 2011 World Cup win?

A: MS Dhoni captained India to victory in 2011. He also hit the winning six in the final against Sri Lanka.

Q: What is the difference between Test cricket and T20?

A: Test matches last up to 5 days with unlimited overs. T20 games are 20 overs per side, lasting about 3 hours.

Q: Who was the first cricketer to score a double century in ODIs?

A: Sachin Tendulkar scored the first double ton in 2010. It was against South Africa in Gwalior.

Q: What is the Duckworth-Lewis method?

A: It's a formula used to calculate revised targets in rain-affected matches. It balances resources like overs and wickets left.

Q: Who is called the 'Universe Boss' in cricket?

A: the joshi , the West Indian opener, is known as the 'Universe Boss'. He is famous for his explosive batting in T20s.

